

FINDS METCALF HAD GOOD REPUTATION HERE

Indianapolis Reporter Comes to Lincoln County in Connection With Failure of Cicero, Ind., Bank.

W. H. Blodgett, a special staff reporter for the Indianapolis News, was here Thursday, having come to Lincoln for the purpose of looking up the antecedents of R. H. Metcalf, formerly cashier of the McKinney Bank, who is in trouble in connection with the failure of a bank at Cicero, Indiana. Mr. Blodgett learned both in Stanford and McKinney that Mr. Metcalf stood very high in this community, and that he was regarded by the great majority of people as strictly honest and upright in every way. Great sympathy has been expressed that he should have gotten into this trouble. Mr. Blodgett stated that from what he had learned since investigating the case, he was of the opinion that Metcalf was the victim of a gang of bank sharpers who had "unloaded" the Cicero bank on him. Blodgett stated that his paper, the Indianapolis News was endeavoring to get the State Banking Department of Indiana for the paper believed that the banking department was guilty of gross negligence in permitting this so-called gang of bank sharpers to carry on the work that they had done in several instances.

In a story written about the failure of Mr. Metcalf's bank, the News gave the following of interest here, as a number of Kentuckians of this part of the state are on the list of those having notes with Metcalf's bank:

From Indianapolis Paper.

The receivers of the two institutions have not been able to give any encouragement to the depositors nor can they give much information to the public because of the tangled condition of the books. From the best information obtainable it seems as if the Cicero bank had about $125,000, and will pay out from 10 to 25 cents on the dollar. The Hamilton County Trust Company has failed for more than $200,000, and if it pays 33 1/3 cents on the dollar it will be doing well, according to the law.

In March, 1905, the Farmers and Merchants Bank was reincorporated as a state bank. About two years ago, R. H. Metcalf, who gave his home as McKinney, bought an interest in the bank and later over the interests of E. M. Hinchaw and his brother Luther Hinchaw. At least that is the statement made at this time. But the last report made to the county auditor by the officials of the Farmers and Merchants Bank, which was on March 1, 1914, shows the following officers and stockholders:

R. H. Metcalf, president, 206 shares; E. M. Hinchaw, 17 shares; J. L. Hinchaw, 15 shares; C. C. Beals, 5 shares; L. E. Tescher, cashier, 12 shares; T. P. Davis, estate, 1 share.

On that date the capital stock was $25,000; the surplus, $1,500; accounts, money, claims and credits belonging to the bank, $191,258.08; deposits, $153,210.45; real estate situated within the state, $11,089.12.

The question that every one here is asking is "what became of the money the depositors put over the bank?" It is known that the Hinchaws speculated in many enterprises—real estate, gas companies, glass factories and other things. John C. Craig was appointed receiver of the Farmers and Merchants Bank, and he filed his first report. This report does not give the details of the bank managers' speculations, but it tells where a great deal of the money went. This report shows that when the receiver took charge there were $120,692.10 in notes in the bank, and that the total assets, including real estate, were $166,167.57.

Of course the great question now is how much of the $120,000 in notes is good. Attorneys who have examined the report say that only a small portion of the notes are of any value. But here are some of them and they tell where some of the bank's money went:

O. R. Russell, director of the bank	$ 2,000.00
Vincent Case, director of the bank	500.00
Vincent Case and his in-law	1,500.00
J. M. Metcalf (unknown at auditor's office)	9,000.00
J. L. Beck (unknown at auditor's office)	2,500.00
Elmer L. Sturdevant, president of the Hamilton Trust Company	281.77
W. F. Modes estate (supposed to be invested in the glass factory destroyed by fire)	3,288.61
George Bowen, former president Hamilton Trust Company	2,665.00
J. B. Beck (unknown at auditor's office)	250.00
Home Gas and Water Co., a Hinchaw concern	2,000.00
E. M. and J. L. Hinchaw	35,322.52
Long Prairie Plantation Co., (unknown)	1,362.50
G. M. Metcalf (unknown at auditor's office)	1,500.00
R. H. Metcalf, president	1,911.79
F. and M. Bank	1,700.00
J. M. Metcalf (unknown at auditor's office)	1,700.00
Sumner Gas and Oil Company (a Hinchaw concern)	1,552.50
L. E. Tescher, cashier F. and M. Bank	1,000.00
E. M. Hinchaw	300.00
Reserve Realty Company of Indianapolis	12,250.00

Beside the notes there are some bonds held by the bank as collateral. The failure of this bank has not only about crushed the business life out of Cicero, but it has swept away the savings of hundreds of poor people, working men and women, who were lured into depositing by the interest rate of 6 per cent, which the bank paid.

The Governor of Utah yesterday vetoed a State-wide Prohibition Bill.

W. T. Axell, ex-postmaster of Edwardsport, Ind., writes: "I suffered from severe trouble with my kidneys and back. First bottle of Foley's Kidney Pills gave me relief. Thousands testify that backache, rheumatism, sore muscles, aching joints and bladder weaknesses vanished when Foley's Kidney Pills were taken. Sold by all dealers."

LATEST WAR NEWS.

Italy, Greece and Roumania are ready to enter the fight with the Allies against Germany, Austria and Turkey, according to belief in Washington diplomatic circles. Greece is eyeing the Dardanelles to see what success the Allied fleets have in forcing the straits and holding them open. Such an event will ring the death knell of Turkey, and Greece to get a share of the spoils must come in. Bulgaria is the fly in the ointment, however, the $30,000,000 loan from Germany to Bulgaria and the general friendship of the two countries is keeping Bulgaria on the fence and thereby holding Italy and Greece back from participating in the war. The Allies are especially keen to throw these eastern countries into the war to reduce to the least possible the strain on the stream of supplies that continues to trickle into the heart of Europe in spite of blockades and anti-blockades. Manufacturers in this country still have no trouble in selling goods to any of the European nations, neutral or warring.

Along there is money to be spent for supplies, either war or food, those supplies will get through somehow. Just how, is their business, as the coin is paid on this side before the goods are shipped to the east. The eastern war zone shows a gradual retreat of the German army; whether the coming of spring or a strategic move to entrap another Russian army is behind the move is a question. The Russian and Austrian armies are making their usual "official" claims to victories at all points.

The Allied forces against Germany, Austria and Turkey would be greatly increased according to figures given out, if Italy, Greece, Bulgaria and Roumania join the Allies, as seems probable now. The war strength of the four armies aggregates 2,480,000 men, with a reserve available for duty of 1,575,000. Eight modern battleships, 13 old battleships, 28 cruisers, 120 destroyers and torpedo boats, and 20 submarines would also be added to the Allied forces. The allied powers have loaned $270,000,000 to Serbia, Belgium, Greece and Montenegro, Paris dispatches state.

Britain is taking still more drastic steps against Germany and for its own preservation. The government is taking over the engineering trade of the country and placing it under a combined management to increase the output of munitions of war. Cotton contracted for from this country before March 2 may sail to enemies' ports, according to the latest note to Secretary Bryan. Securities are liable to seizure, however, bonds and stocks shipped by Germans being refused insurance by marine underwriters. A delicate situation is being created between the United States and Great Britain by this move according to New York brokers.

Fifteen hundred vessels have been taken over by the British government to carry the immense army to France, the vessels to be returned to the owners at expiration of time charters.

Early in the week three more British ships were sent to the bottom in English waters by German submarines. These raids were not widely different from the blockade zone, and 37 lives were lost on one ship, no warning being given, according to London cable. The British airmen repeated their raids on the German naval base at Ostend, six of the airships were shot down, and 17 of its crew of 41 is reported as wrecked by descending among trees.

Fighting in the Dardanelles continues as the Allied fleets pound the forts of the Turks. Turkish dispatches claim that the forts are more than holding their own. The Queen Elizabeth is throwing shells 12 miles into the land forts, remaining out of reach of the Turkish land fire. British reports state, though admitting that three minor hits on the Queen Elizabeth as well as on the other ships were registered. Four more Turkish forts have been silenced. The Russians are bombarding the Turks on the Black Sea from behind, it is stated. French troops are being rushed to the Dardanelles to operate on land, twenty transports carrying them, reports say.

Louvain municipal authorities are paying the United States a commission naming streets for this country—Washington, Wilson and America—because of the work done in behalf of Belgium and the fact that Louvain is the cradle of a university more than five centuries old. Canada is floating a $15,000,000 loan in this country, bonds being sold by a Boston firm. The postal deficit amounts to $1,800,000 since the beginning of the war.

Canada has recently landed 4,000 more troops in Europe for use of the war. This brings Canada's contribution in men up to 40,000.

CARPENTER—COLLIS WEDDING

A Beautiful Social Event At Danville Wednesday Evening

The first wedding to be solemnized in the new Christian church at Danville, and one of the most beautiful nuptial events seen in that city in a long while was the wedding of Miss Laura Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Walker, of Moreland, to Mr. Mark Collis, Jr., of Lexington, Wednesday evening at half past eight o'clock. The decorations, in keeping with the simplicity of the interior of this handsome church, consisted of palms, ferns and bay trees, which were effectively grouped around the pulpit and choir loft. During the assembling of the guests an enjoyable program of music was given by the organ by Miss Gladys Shaller.

At 8:30 o'clock the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin announced the arrival of the wedding party. Rev. Mark Collis and Dr. H. C. Garrison, followed by ushers, Mr. Hunter Wilson, of Louisville, Mr. Coleman Collis, of Lexington, brother of the groom; Mr. T. B. Hume, Jr., of Lexington and Mr. Hubert Carpenter, of Stanford, entered from the front of the church, while from the rear came the bridesmaid, Miss Elizabeth Salter, gowned in Wash Chiffon and lace and carrying a bunch of pink sweet peas. She was followed by Miss Elizabeth Carpenter, maid of honor, whose dress was white Crepe-de-Chene and lace, and who carried pink sweet peas. Next came the matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Salter, dressed in a gown of Orchid Crepe-de-Chene made with a long court train and full length sleeves. Her powers were lured into the church by the bride, little Josephine Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan B. Carpenter, of Dayton, Ohio, in a lingerie frock with pink sash, carrying a basket of pink and white sweet peas, which she scattered on the path of the bride party as they left the church.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr. Adam Carpenter, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. John Collis. Her gown was white Crepe-de-Chene, trimmed with Duchess lace and pearls, with the long sleeves and high collar made of tulle. Her veil, held in place by a bandeau of orange blossoms, fell the full length of the court train. She carried a bunch of valley lilies and white sweet peas.

The marriage ceremony was said by the groom's father, Rev. Mark Collis, of Lexington, Dr. Garrison making the final prayer and pronouncing the benediction. As the bride party left the church the wedding march, Mendelssohn was played by the organist.

Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter entertained for the bride and groom at a reception. After the ceremony, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Salter, on Broadway, to which the invitations were limited to the two families and out of town guests. Here the decorations were of pink and white sweet peas, the table having on it a basket of these blossoms and lace work. A buffet supper of two courses was served, the colors, pink and white, being carried out in the ices and cakes. The numerous gifts of silver, cut glass, china and linens were attractively arranged on tables at one end of the dining room. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Collis will go to house-keeping in Tampa, Florida.

Those who attended the wedding from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Collis, Mrs. George Collis and Miss Mary Truce, of Lexington; Mrs. C. E. Gregory, sister of the groom, from Central City; Mr. F. Collis, from Orlando, Florida; Mrs. W. L. Kennett, Mrs. E. W. Curtice and Miss Julia Curtice, from Louisville; Mrs. Harry from Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. B. Payne and Mr. Robert Hiatt, from Painesville; Mrs. Homer Carpenter and daughter, Eleanor, from Shelbyville; and Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Carpenter, from Stanford.

FROM REMOTEST PARTS OF THE WORLD

Famous Medicine, Tanlac Draws Ingredients From Distant Points

Louisville, March 18, 1915—L. T. Cooper, the man who electrified the larger cities with his philanthropy, health theories and medicine, is now meeting hundreds daily in Louisville and explaining the nature of his celebrated preparation, Tanlac.

To a group of friends at The Seabach, where he is stopping, Mr. Cooper stated that the medicinal elements of his medicine, Tanlac, came from many remote sections of the globe. The Alps, Apennines, Pyrenees, Russian, Asia, Jamaica, Brazil, West Indies, Mountain States near the Rocky Mountains, Asia Minor, Persia, India, Russia, England, France, Germany, Mexico, Columbia and Peru were among the points he mentioned as furnishing the ingredients for the premier preparation.

In his principal laboratory, the roots, bark and leaves of the medicine in its original, is assembled under the personal direction of a German chemist of note and skillfully made that is shown by the uniform preparation of those organs.

In sterilized bottles, made expressly for the purpose, Tanlac is placed, labeled, inspected and then shipped out over the world where the demand requires.

Mr. Cooper, having made an extensive study of catarrhal affection, was asked to express himself upon that subject. He said:

"Most of the so-called stomach, liver and kidney troubles are almost entirely to a catarrhal inflammation of those organs. The inflaming coughing-up of mucus, dull, throbbing headaches, pains in the pit of stomach, and the persistent susceptibility to coughs and colds, are common symptoms from which so many suffer."

"Tanalac, the preparation I am introducing to combat this condition, preserves your health, gives you renewed energy, brightens your spirits, lengthens your life and is an unmistakable, unfailing remedy for the thousands who suffer from catarrh and its distressing consequences."

Tanalac can now be bought in Stanford at Penny's drug store, exclusive agent.

WHO WILL GRAB THE PLUM?

Keen Contest On for Rural Route Carrier No. 5 Out of Stanford.

Considerable interest has been aroused over the selection of a Rural Route carrier for Route No. 5, out of Stanford to Hustonville, Moreland and return, which will soon be made by the Postoffice Department. About a score of applicants took the civil service examination to get on the eligible list, and an unofficial report from Washington gives as the three highest, Wallace Singleton, Francis Weatherford, of James Cooper, in the order named, from which the selection will have to be made. Supt. Garland Singleton, father of the first named claims to have the promise of Congressman Helm for the place, and says he resigned from the railway mail clerk to take it. It is understood, however, that Frank Weatherford, who is now a deputy sheriff in the office of his father, Sheriff J. G. Weatherford, has secured a number of signatures among residents on the route, to a petition asking that he be appointed. The friends of James Cooper, son of County Clerk George B. Cooper, are also understood to be working hard for him. Mr. Weatherford, of Moreland, is now carrying the route temporarily until an appointment is made.

TRAIN HITS RURAL CARRIER

John J. Durham, carrier on Rural Route No. 1 out of Moreland, was run into by a fast passenger train on the Cincinnati and Ohio road, coming from the south, early Tuesday morning. Mr. Durham sustained a broken rib, and internal injuries in his chest, it is feared. His horse was killed and the rig smashed. The train was behind time, and Mr. Durham was not expecting it to come at the time he reached the crossing. The engineer immediately stopped the train, backed up and carried him to the hospital at Danville, where he was given every attention, and where it was learned by the Milleville crossing, has been the scene of many accidents on this railroad.

HUSTONVILLE LIGHT PLANT

Bought By Walter Owsley Who Will Improve and Push Business

Walter Owsley has bought the Hustonville Electric Light plant from the Lippis heirs and will soon take charge and continue its operation on a system planned to give the people of the hustling West End metropolis the very best service possible. It is understood that the plant complete cost Mr. Owsley $3,000. He has arranged to move the electric light and power plant from the Hustonville Roller Mills where the juice has been hitherto manufactured, and will install a large, 25-horse power gasoline engine, in an especially constructed building for his lighting and power plant. He has bought an International engine, and an expert electrician will come to Hustonville to superintend the moving of the electric plant and storage batteries, and installation of the new engine and accessories. The capital of the West End is unusually favored in its wealth and power facilities, having been furnished a 24-hour current ever since the plant was installed. Electric fans, washing machines, and other household devices requiring a small amount of power from the power plant, are in great demand in view of the convenience and cheapness of the power obtained. Mr. Owsley plans to devote all of his time to the business, and will push it energetically, educating the people to what great variety of uses they can put the juice for both power and lighting purpose.

Carpenter, of this city, cut the ring out of the bridal cake. By all rules and regulations this signifies that he will be the next one on the bridal party to marry. He had been identified with the philanthropic, religious and educational work of the great west. He was the author of several remarkable works and was the founder of the largest Christian church in the south at Fort Worth. He was a first cousin of Mrs. Mollie Biquin, of this city.

Mr. Kenner Farris is quite ill at his home here.

Rev. Manifold preached splendidly Sunday morning on Missionary Work to a large audience. A duet was sweetly and touchingly rendered by Mrs. Caltha Newland and Miss Tanner Thompson entitled "He Tells Me He Will Be With Me to the End," which was appropriate to the occasion. At the evening service Miss Thompson also sang "If We Only Had Time."

Rev. Manifold is one of the ablest ministers this church has had in years.

WANT STREETS OF TOWN OILED

Foot to Secure Benefit for City

At the regular meeting of the Women's Club Wednesday afternoon one of the chief topics of discussion was the proposal to inaugurate a campaign to have the business, and residence streets of Stanford oiled this spring so as to be ready for the dust of summer. Practically all of the ladies present were heartily in favor of the plan, and it was agreed that a committee should be named to interview the merchants and citizens regarding the matter and see what amount can be raised by private subscription, to be supplemented by an appropriation by the City Council for the work. So far as expressions have been heard, a big majority of the Main street merchants, business men and professional men are strongly in favor of having the streets oiled and thus allaying the dust nuisance which is fairly a plague on the city. The ladies of the Women's Club plan to make a house to house canvass to ascertain just what sum they can count on from private contributors and will then go before the City Fathers with the matter and ask for active co-operation.

C. E. Tate sold 76 head of registered Duroc Jersey hogs, to R. W. Jones local buyer, Wednesday morning. He got $6.75 a hundred pounds for them and they were extra fine. Eastern buyers are showing considerable interest as they were being driven through town. They averaged 170 pounds.

A number of sheep breeders around Turnersville have recently engaged their crop of spring lambs to Judge W. M. Myers, of Hustonville, for June and July delivery, at eight and seven cents. Anderson Nunley engaged to deliver about 40; Virgil Campbell will deliver about the same number and Roy Spears expects to deliver about 100.

Monday was mule day at Mt. Sterling and over 700 head were on the market. The demand was light and not a great many mules were sold. Horses were strong and sales were made from $100 to $225 per head, with most of sales around $145 to $160 each. No cattle was offered for sale on account of quarantine closing all stock yards. About 1,500 cattle were outside the city and yearling sold at eight cents the pound. It was the second time within twenty years that the Mt. Sterling stock yards have been closed.

John S. Baughman, of Danville, has just purchased from Henry Gaywood, of Lexington, one of the handsomest Shetland pony stallions ever seen in this part of Kentucky. The little fellow is named Cock Robin, and is one of the shapeliest and finest gaited fellows of his size the writer ever saw. Mr. Baughman's son Branham Baughman, the crack little rider, created a sensation with him on the streets of Danville court day, putting him through his gait. He cost Mr. Baughman $200, and he plans to make a season with him before sending him out on the fair circuit this fall.

The transfer of $56,000,000 in Government funds now held by national banks to reserve banks has been begun.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES

They Are Closely Observing Public Health Conditions

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease.

According to this it would seem that a medicine for the kidneys, possessing real healing and curative properties, would be a blessing to thousands.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., who prepare Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the well known kidney, liver and bladder remedy, claim that judging from evidence received from druggists everywhere, who are constantly in touch with their customers, that thousands of reliable citizens, this preparation is remarkably successful in sickness caused by kidney and bladder troubles. Every interesting statement they receive regarding Swamp-Root is investigated and no testimonial is published unless the party who sends it is reported of good character. They have on file many sworn statements of recoveries in the most distressing cases. They state that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is mild and gentle in its action and its healing influence is soon noticed in most cases.

Swamp-Root is purely an herbal compound and Dr. Kilmer & Co., advise all readers who feel in need of such a remedy to give it a trial. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes—50c. and $1.00. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Stanford Indiana Journal.

They Know It's Safe. Parents who know from experience insist upon Foley's Kidney and Tar Compound when buying a medicine for coughs, colds, croup and la grippe. C. T. Luncford, Washington, Ga., writes: "I have used it for six years and it never has failed. I think it is the best remedy made for coughs and colds. Sold by all dealers."

ALLEGED BOOTLEGGERS

ARRESTED IN WEST END. Uncle Sam's Officers Grab Charley Reid and Half a Dozen From Junction City

One of the biggest hauls of bootleggers ever made in this section of the state was made by Deputy Internal Revenue Collector Rowan Sauley, of Stanford, and Deputy U. S. Marshal Charles W. Wines, of Somerset, Wednesday, when they arrested Charley Reid, of Milleville, this county, and half a dozen at Junction City and Shelby City, who are alleged to have been selling liquor unlawfully. Many people of the West End of the county have, for several years been endeavoring to catch Reid, but he has been entirely too clever for them, and not until Uncle Sam took a hand in the game was evidence secured upon which to hold him. It is said that there are three separate and distinct cases against him. The men arrested at Junction City were John West, Oscar Hamner, Buford Wrenn, white, and Charles Scott and Harry Chinn, colored. A

McCHESNEY ENTERS RACE FOR GOVERNORSHIP

Stands for Constitutional Amendment Submitting to the People Vote on State-Wide Prohibition of Sale of Liquor.

Says it Must Be Determined Whether They or the Whiskey Interests Shall Rule Kentucky.

With the declaration in favor of State-wide prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as the chief plank in his platform, the Hon. H. V. McChesney, of Frankfort, has announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor in the State primary of next August.

Mr. McChesney declares that if nominated and elected, he will urge upon the General Assembly to submit to the people for their ratification an amendment to the Kentucky Constitution providing for State-wide prohibition. In the formal announcement of his candidacy, Mr. McChesney, who several years ago filled the offices of State Superintendent of Public Instruction and Secretary of State, promises an abridgement of public expenditures where it can be properly done, and the further advancement of the present progress in educational and agricultural development.

His announcement is as follows: "To the Democratic voters of Kentucky: After mature deliberation I have decided to enter the race for the Democratic nomination for the office of Governor, in the primary to be held August 7, 1915. In making this announcement I believe that I am doing so for the benefit of the State, and I believe that I am doing so for the benefit of the State, and I believe that I am doing so for the benefit of the State."

I am in favor of state wide prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. If nominated and elected, I shall urge upon the Legislature of 1916 the passage of an Act submitting a prohibition amendment to the Constitution to the people for their ratification. In view of the large amount of capital invested in the liquor business, however, I shall favor careful and rigid inspection of all departments of the State government with this purpose in view.

I congratulate the State on the great development in our public school system in recent years, and if elected I shall use every endeavor to further advance the cause of public education. Having devoted a large part of my life to the cause of the public schools, I am deeply interested in their continued growth.

The increased interest manifested over the State in improved methods of agriculture and in the construction of good roads is very gratifying. If elected I shall aid in every way possible in the furtherance of both of these great interests, so vital to the progress and welfare of the whole people.

I am in hearty sympathy with the progressive spirit which has marked the State's advance along many lines in recent years, and I shall enter into no detailed account of my record as Superintendent of Public Instruction and as Secretary of State before the people for their judgment, and I shall enter into no detailed account of my services in these positions. The people of the State are more or less familiar with the record made, and I am willing to risk their judgment of my fitness for the office of Governor on that record.

During my term as Superintendent of Public Instruction the State per capita was increased largely, the teaching force of the State has been increased, and other educational progress made. At a provision in the Act giving a reasonable time after its ratification, if it becomes operative, in order that those engaged in the business may adjust their affairs without too great a sacrifice.

I have no fault to find with the County Unit Law. I have favored every advanced step taken in its various amendments. It is a step in the right direction, and has been a great blessing to the Commonwealth. Under it 108 counties have voted dry; but the remaining counties contain a very considerable part of the total population of the State. The present law seems inadequate to give relief to the people of most of these counties. And again, the liquor interests, instead of showing respect for the County Unit Law, and for the will of the people as expressed at the polls, have been continuing every election where the result was dry, and going into the courts with every possible technicality, in an effort to defeat the will of the people. Not only has this been their attitude toward the law, but they have bitterly opposed every man who aspires to public office who does not take his orders from them. A temperance man can not run for any office in Kentucky, however humble, without feeling the weight of their wrath, expressed in the usual way. Their efforts to dominate the politics of the State have increased as county after county has been added to the dry column, until their influence has become a menace to popular government.

In view of all this it seems that there is but one solution to the problem, and that is to submit it to the whole people that we may know once and for all time whether the people of the liquor interests are to rule in Kentucky. Not only is this the logic of the situation, but it is also the only fair. Who can be heard to say that the people as a whole haven't a right to pass on a question so vitally affecting their moral and financial welfare? We submit good roads amendments and taxation amendments to the whole people—why not submit this question, infinitely more vital to them?

As stated above, I am not unmindful of the property interests involved. It is regretted that many reforms often bring financial loss to some; but the public conscience justifies the loss to the few when it means an infinitely greater saving to the many. The onward march of Christian civilization must not be retarded because a few men have invested their money in the business constituting the obstruction.

My familiarity with the financial affairs of the State, as a result of eight years' experience (from 1906 to 1914) as Superintendent of Public Instruction and Secretary of State, and as a member of the Sinking Fund Board, leads me to the belief that such a revision of our taxation system can be made so well and judiciously as to make good any reduction in the loss of the tax on liquors. And this can be done without any increase of the tax rate. Saving State revenues is just as important as producing them. With the elimination of the speakeasy business in Kentucky the saving to the State in criminal prosecutions alone would be an enormous item, and so far as the State's use can be saved, in half a dozen years we can relieve the financial situation of the State and build a grander and better every church and school house in the Commonwealth.

Another large saving can be accomplished by the elimination of all useless offices, and if elected I shall institute the close of my term I wrote the bill increasing the rural school term from five months to six, and the companion bill providing the funds for the extra month, which was passed by the Legislature. As Secretary of State I was a member of the Board which built the new Capitol, and was also a member of the Board which assessed all the State taxes, which were very largely increased during that term. The two administrations covering my term and service to the State of great prosperity in the governmental affairs of the State—a big state debt was paid off, the rural school term increased to six months, two State Normal Schools established, the State University put on a more comprehensive basis, a new Capitol built, many other progressive movements fostered, all without increasing the tax rate, and a full treasury turned over to the succeeding administration. I am proud to have had a part in making that record.

During the seven years since I retired from public office I have responded to every call of the Democratic party. During this time, to the serious neglect of my personal affairs, I have stamped the State for my party in every campaign, giving my time and services to the success of the party's nominees.

My eight years' experience in public office, and my service to the State in the affairs of the State government, ought to prove valuable to the Chief Executive. My service to my party since retiring from office perhaps entitles me to a public office, and as a private citizen with whatever ability I may possess, I shall devote my entire time and energy to the discharge of the duties of the office in an effort to promote the moral, educational and business interests of the Commonwealth, to the end that it may become a better place even than it is now in which to live.

Respectfully submitted,
H. V. McCHESNEY.

Forty-six years old, virile, enthusiastic, and of a ready wit, Mr. McChesney has made himself one of the best known Democrats in Kentucky through his activity in the interests of the party in every campaign since boyhood. He entered public life at the age of 25, when he was elected County Superintendent of Livingston. He was re-elected to that office. Previous to that he had taught in Caldwell, his native county; Crittenden, where he was reared; Webster and Livingston.

From County Superintendent of Livingston he was promoted to the office of State Superintendent in 1899, running on the Goebel ticket. Four years later he was elected Secretary of State on the ticket with J. C. Beckwith.

His friendship has been continuous and close since that time. Mr. McChesney was chairman of the speakers' bureau of the Democratic party in 1911 and, excepting Governor McCreary himself, made more speeches in the campaign than any other Democrat. He stamped the State with Mr. Beckwith when the latter was elected United States Senator.

Probably no public man in the State is more demanded as a speaker on all sorts of occasions than Mr. McChesney, and his interests in affairs touching community welfare are well known in the State. He has resided and has been practicing law since a member of the City Board of Education, Director of the Y. M. C. A., Vice-President of the Kentucky State Historical Society, and a deacon in the Baptist Church and President of its Sunday School.

Moonlight School Contests Close
The contests between teachers and trustees for the prizes offered by Kentucky's statesman for the best moonlight school were very warm ones, many being in close competition for the prize. The sworn reports of teachers and letters from adults who had been taught to write showed excellent results for the sessions of 1914.

Adair county captured the grand prize, $50.00 offered by Senator Ollie M. James for the best moonlight school in Kentucky. Mrs. W. L. Russell was the winner.

McCreary and Hardin counties won the $50.00 prize of Senator J. N. Camden to the trustee who best promoted the moonlight school work. W. P. Johnson, trustee at Barren Fork, McCreary county, and Rev. J. A. Fryrear, of Hardin county, tied for the prize and the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission divided the prize between them. Mr. Johnson is an old soldier and fought in the battle of Gettysburg. He climbed a cliff each evening to be in the moonlight school and taught one of the classes. He is 70 years of age. Rev. Fryrear has served 28 years as school trustee, having the longest term of service of any trustee in the State. He is 70 years of age and a Baptist minister. He put forth a heroic effort to make the moonlight school in his district a success.

Congressman W. J. Field's prize of $25.00 for the best moonlight school in the Ninth District was won by Bath county. This was the most heating of all the contests, there being some excellent schools in Mason, Montgomery, Rowan and other counties, which ran the prize school in Bath a close race. Virgil Jones, a young teacher, won the honors for Bath.

Congressman J. Campbell Cantrell's prize of $25.00 for the best moonlight school in the Seventh District was won by Dudley Caudill, of Powell county.

Congressman John W. Langley's prize of $25.00 for the best moonlight school in the Tenth District was won by W. R. Thomas of Floyd county.

Attorney General James A. Garrett's prize of $10.00 for the best moonlight school in Adair county was awarded to Mrs. W. L. Russell.

State Senator J. R. Zimmerman's prize of $10.00 for the best moonlight school in Bullitt county was awarded to Miss Mary Dawson.

The Bank of Clarkson's prize of $10.00 for the best moonlight school in Grayson county was won by A. K. Witten.

The Kentucky Illiteracy Commission's prizes for the best moonlight school stories were won by the following: first prize, Miss Laura Smith, Adair county; second prize, Miss Maud Bishop, McCreary county; third prize, Miss Lottie L. Richards, Rowan county.

Illiteracy Census

The school trustees of Kentucky will be given an opportunity to play an important part in the illiteracy campaign. They are being asked by the County Superintendents, the State Superintendent and the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission to take a census of the pupil children, of who cannot read and write. Their names will be reported to the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission, at Frankfort. This is a move in the right direction. No doubt, the trustees will count it a high privilege to serve the State in this way. It will require very little extra exertion, and will help to show Kentucky's real standing. Also, it will enable the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission to know where illiteracy is most prevalent, and it may be sending out the life-line to many a deprived man or woman. School authorities are lending hearty co-operation, and the public will await the results with interest. Above all things, this census should be accurate. There is nothing to be gained by either concealing or overestimating the illiteracy of a county.

"Old Kaintucky"

The poet of the following lines, Thomas H. Arnold, of Chicago, is evidently a "Kaintuckian," and much in love with his native state:

You're from old Kentucky,
Well, I'll be gol darned—say
I'd rather live in that old State
Than be the Czar of Russia.
With his riches and his truck—
Say, I wouldn't take his kingdom
For one corner of old "Kaintuck."
I'd rather be a hopper
Jes lazin' in the corn
In an old Kaintucky hillside
Than any King that's born.
I'd rather watch the Bluegrass
Nod its dainty head, and bow
Than see the slickest picture
In old Italy, I swear.
It seems to me old nature,
When she cut Kaintucky out—
Came pretty near a-knowin'
The thing she was a bout—
So she made another Eden
With the sweetest flowers that grew
And christened in Kaintucky
With a jug of "mountain dew."
There ain't no other corner
Of this hemisphere of ours
Whar old Mother Earth is kivered
With such dainty perfumed flowers,
Whar old teeter-birds and thrushes
Can ejaculate such notes,
As they can in old Kaintucky
From their little feathered throats.
An' the wimen, jumpin' 'jays-birds
In the good old Blue Grass State,
The Lord has made 'em perfect, and
Lost the fashion plate.
I wouldn't be without 'em—and I'll state here, by and by,
You can plant me in Kaintucky when it comes my time to die.

The man who had failed for $137-653.98 laughed uproariously. "Those fool papers," he chaffed, "put my failure under 'Business troubles.'" For he had managed to fail without the slightest trouble to himself.

SIR RAY, No. 11852

This great Imp. Percheron stallion will make the present season of 1915 at my farm, 3 1/2 miles from Stanford, Ky., on the Crab Orchard pike, at $15 to insure a living colt. If mare is sold or parted with after being bred the season is then due. The utmost care and attention will be given to the breeding of mares, but will not be responsible for accidents should any occur.

Sir Ray is a beautiful chestnut horse, 7 years old, 16 1/2 hands high, weighing 1,650 pounds; great style and action. He is a great breeder and sure foal getter. As an individual and a breeder, he is in a class by himself. He has made two seasons in this county, at Crab Orchard and all of his colts are high class. Sir Ray is by Honest Tom 40701, and is bred right all through.

MAKE WORK EASIER

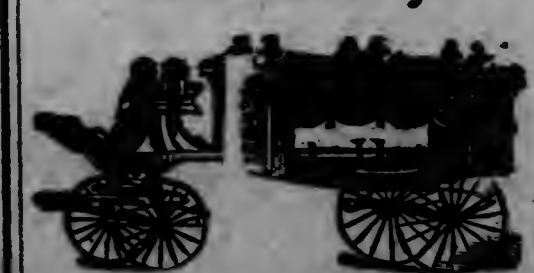

Stanford People Are Pleased To Learn How It Has Been Done

It's pretty hard to attend to duties with a constantly aching back; With annoying urinary disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills have made work easier.

So thousands have gratefully testified. They're for mad backs. They're for weak kidneys. Stanford people gratefully recommend Doan's.

"Off and on for several years I had severe attacks of lame back," says John H. Wren, engineer at Electric Plant, of E. Main St., Stanford. "Often I did work that required stooping and at such times the backache became much worse. I also had a too frequent desire to pass kidney secretions both day and night. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me and have never failed to benefit me since then, when I have taken them. Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Wren had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 23-1

A Father At Ninety-Nine

Robert Bates, aged ninety-nine, residing just over the Virginia border in Letcher county, Kentucky, is the proud father of a son born a few days ago. Bates's first wife died several years ago, leaving fifteen children. Last year he took unto himself another better half. Despite his advanced years, he is remarkably well preserved. Recently he made a trip over the Cumberland Mountains to Free-ling, riding horseback and driving thirty head of cattle. He is reputed to be worth fully $100,000, his accumulations having kept pace with his years. Martin Van Buren Bates, known as the Kentucky Giant, who made a tour of England and Continental Europe in the early 70s, attracting wide attention was his brother.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT, BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR
Make it Thick, Glossy, Wavy, Luxuriant and Remove Dandruff—Real Surprise for You.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

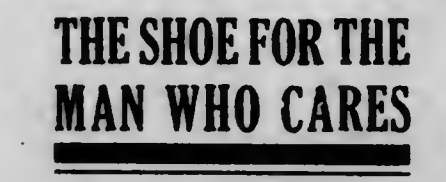

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it. 23-1.

I am sure I could have purchased no such buggy of any other firm or factory for a price so reasonable. It is not only well made and stylish, but it is a very comfortable one and there is no doubt in my mind but that it will prove to be what it is guaranteed to be. All of the neighbors and friends to whom I have shown the buggy agree with me that it is the greatest bargain, and I suspect it will only be a short time until you will have some orders from this part of the country. I am going to do my best to advertise your splendid buggy, for I feel that you have proven a friend to me by sending such a buggy, therefore I shall encourage and make as many sales as possible to show my appreciation."

T. C. Williams, McDonald, Tenn., writes: "I received my buggy all O. K. and find it is a dandy one and everyone who has looked at it has passed a compliment on it. It is a well-built vehicle and I am well pleased with it. I hope that I may be the cause of your selling more in this country."

Edward Thornton, Fox Chase, Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I find my buggy sizes up to every feature you claim for it. It is very comfortable. I have ridden 25 miles at a time with no fatigue. I was somewhat pessimistic and inclined to take some of your strong assertions with precaution, not having purchased many goods from advertisements. From your manly, straight-from-the-shoulder correspondence, I was persuaded to send my order. I am fully convinced your method of doing business has been the secret of your success, and when next in the market for a carriage the order is sure to go to you."

A. F. Carpenter, Wolltown, Va., writes: "I received my buggy the first of September. Since that time have given it a thorough road test and I find it exactly as you represented it to me. I am perfectly satisfied with it in every respect—in fact, I have seen none that equals it for a much higher price, and I feel I have value received for every cent of my investment."

Edgar M. Hunt, Sanders, Ky., says: "I like my buggy and harness fine. I like it better than any buggy I ever saw. Several people who have seen my buggy talk like they would order a buggy from you in the spring. You can see my name in advertising if you wish to do so. Please send Mr. B. K. Davis a catalog of your buggies, as he asked me to write you for one."

Emory M. McCord, Greenwood, S. C., writes: "We are more than pleased with the buggy you shipped us the first of June, and now it is December 6th, and every one who sees it wants to know where we got it. We have had a good many to ask how much we paid for it and they seem to be more than surprised at the price paid for such a pretty buggy. A friend bought a new buggy after we got ours and paid $115.00 for it without harness. When we get ready for another new buggy we will not think of buying from anyone but you. I am sending you names of friends. I do hope you will be able to sell each a new buggy."

Marcus A. Whistler, Jamestown, Ind., says: "Buggy and set of driving harness received the 17th. Am well satisfied with both and must say that the harness and buggy are certainly made with great care, both workmanship and selection of material. I would like for your painter to send me some brown paint, just a very small amount to apply to a few places I notice have been marked by shipping. Any time I can be the cause of an order being sent you by my friends, I will consider I have helped both them and myself."

Lawrence Melugin, R. F. D. No. 1, Reeds, Mo., writes: "I am mailing you a picture of myself, horse and buggy which I bought from you some time ago. It isn't a very good picture, but maybe it will give you an idea. You never mind what the picture cost for I think you have done me enough favors and gave me such a good bargain on that rig that the picture shall not cost you anything. I am not in the habit of bragging on anyone, but I will when it is worth while."

Here Is How Our Plan Hits the Middleman

We have sold hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of vehicles and harness direct from factory to consumer, and every sale has been a clean-cut straight-from-the-shoulder SMASH between the eyes of some "middleman." We are sorry for this—we regret that our pathway to success should be strewn with wrecked hopes and thwarted ambitions of those who have tried in vain to hold us back. Personally we have nothing against dealers, agents, jobbers, mail order catalog houses and other middlemen, who seek to gather two or three profits, where we are satisfied with one—we are really sorry for them, because they are doing business in the wrong way. A vehicle or set of harness is never worth more than the factory price, and because we save you all the expense and profits of the middlemen, they should not grow peevish and throw things at Bohon, for neither I nor my customers and friends are to blame—it is simply the law of supply and demand at work. Folks will buy where they can get the most for their money. That's the whole matter in a nutshell. Our plan hits the middleman, because the vehicle users of this country have made up their mind to do business on the straight line from factory to user, rather than on the zig-zag line from maker through traveling salesmen, jobbers, dealers, agents or catalog supply houses to user. Is there a reason?

You must either buy directly or indirectly—you must either pay three profits or one profit on your vehicles and harness. When a dealer buys a vehicle, he buys indirectly and absolutely must pay two or more profits before he takes the vehicle from the crate. Now, if you buy of a dealer, you must not only pay these two or three profits, but in addition, you must pay the dealer's profit and also his selling expense extra—four profits in all. When you buy of us, you buy directly—you pay one small profit. Our price to you is less than dealers can buy vehicles for spot cash in carload lots. Don't let the price-boosting middleman throw dust in your eyes—find out for yourself—get the facts, then decide. If you do this, you will surely buy of Bohon and save agents', dealers', jobbers' and salesmen's commission.

Some people are pretty hard to convince, especially when they don't want to be. Like the old backwoodsman on his first visit to the circus for instance. He walked cautiously around the giraffe, looked the tall fellow up one side and down the other for about five minutes; then shifted his quid from one side of his mouth to the other, took off his glasses, wiped them carefully, and turning to the attendant said:

"Hub! There Ain't No Such Animal!"

That old fellow reminds me of the people who say "Bohon has no factory; Bohon's vehicles lack quality; made to sell, not to wear, etc."

The only difference is that the old backwoodsman was trying to deceive himself—he honestly thought his eyes were playing tricks—while the fellow who says, "Bohon does not make the highest grade vehicles in his own factory right here in Harrodsburg," is trying for a selfish purpose to deceive you.

Don't let the dealer, agent or middleman throw dust in your eyes. Get the FACTS—know for yourself, for any agent or dealer that tells you that we do not manufacture our vehicles right here in our own factory—does so in order to sell you a vehicle and pocket a big profit. We have here a factory equal in equipment to any vehicle factory in the United States—BAR NONE.

Thirty Days Free Road Trial

Life Long Guarantee Backed by Our $30,000 Bank Bond

Every Bohon vehicle is sold on a thirty days' free road trial. We want you to try it as your own—submit to any test and then decide whether you want to keep it. Compare it closely point for point with other vehicles in your neighborhood, either in use or offered for sale, and if you are not fully convinced that we have furnished you the best made, the handsomest finished, the easiest riding and the lightest running buggy you ever saw, and if you do not think that by dealing direct with our factory you have saved at least $25.00 to $40.00—if in fact, for any reason you are not perfectly satisfied, and if the vehicle is not exactly as represented and in strict accordance with our claims—we will take it back and stand all the loss. If after the trial you keep it—as we know you will—you are absolutely protected against any loss or trouble resulting from defective material or workmanship—for if ever at any time—it matters not when, whether one, two, three, five or ten years—any piece or part proves imperfect, we will replace or repair it free of charge. As an absolute protection to you, under this guarantee, we have deposited with the Mercer National Bank of this city, our legal binding bond for $30,000, and if we ever make a claim under the guarantee that we did not carry out, we can be made to forfeit this bond. Just stop and think what this means to buy a vehicle under a life-long, unlimited guarantee, backed by a bank bond. If we did not make as fine vehicles as it is possible to produce—how could we make such an offer?

OUR LARGE MODERN FACTORY

Our large, modern factory is just as up-to-date as any in the United States. We have every facility for manufacturing high-grade vehicles at the lowest cost of production. Please don't confuse our factory with some of the small repair shops here in Central Kentucky that possibly assemble one hundred vehicles in the course of a year, for we manufacture them by the thousands and sell them all over the United States, as well as in many foreign countries. We have every new labor-saving machine, every practical arrangement known. We have here as fine a collection of vehicle builders as was ever gotten together by any firm anywhere. They are men of experience and ability, clean, moral and conscientious—they are men who like their work. Visit our office and factory if you can, and see for yourself how Bohon vehicles are made. Our factory is of personal and vital interest to you and every other vehicle user who wants to know the facts about why and how Bohon makes the best style vehicles, maintains the very highest quality and undersells the world. If every vehicle user in Kentucky really knew the truth and facts about the wonderful values we give—in spite of our already tremendous business—we would have to increase our factory, at least ten to fifteen times in order to supply the demand.
